

Community Meeting

Kamuela, HI (March 22, 2010) – On Thursday, April 8, 2010 at 6pm, North Hawaii Community Hospital invites the community to an open meeting with John White, President and CEO. The meeting will be held in the Mauna Kea/Mauna Loa Meeting Rooms at the hospital.

White will be discussing changes at the Waimea Women's Center including the addition of three new OB/GYN physicians: Dr. Patricia Gunter, Dr. Alison Moore, and Dr. Ashley Byno. Additionally, White will be discussing the status of the future Emergency Department expansion project, the new State of Hawaii trauma program and other topics that affect health care in North Hawaii.

Everyone is welcome. Drinks and snacks will be available.

North Hawaii Community Hospital (NHCH) is a rural, thirty-nine bed acute care medical facility located in Kamuela, Hawaii. This non-profit, community-owned hospital opened in 1996 and serves residents and visitors of the Island of Hawaii. NHCH offers a full spectrum of acute-care hospital services. It has a commitment to patient-centered care, treating the patient as a whole person - mind, body and spirit - in the context of family, culture and community. NHCH is a prototype for the careful integration of high-quality medical care and select complementary healing practices administered in a safe and caring environment.
